'Zion's Den': LG grad's hot fitness wear on 'Today'

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

Devin Lane Battersby's three-year-old custom fitness apparel line is garnering national attention — most recently featured last Friday morning on the Today Show, and in December in Shape magazine.

The 2008 Lake George High grad, age 26, said she started the clothing line with just a $200 investment when she was home-bound after the birth of her first son, Zion, for whom the Zion's Den apparel line is named.

Ms. Battersby and her husband Adam live with their now-two young children in Park City, Utah.

"After I had my first son, he was in the NICU and I was on bed rest, not able to work. Me and my husband decided it was best if I not go back to work. But I am a go-go-go person, with a lot
