'Tiki Tours' proposed for Lake George

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

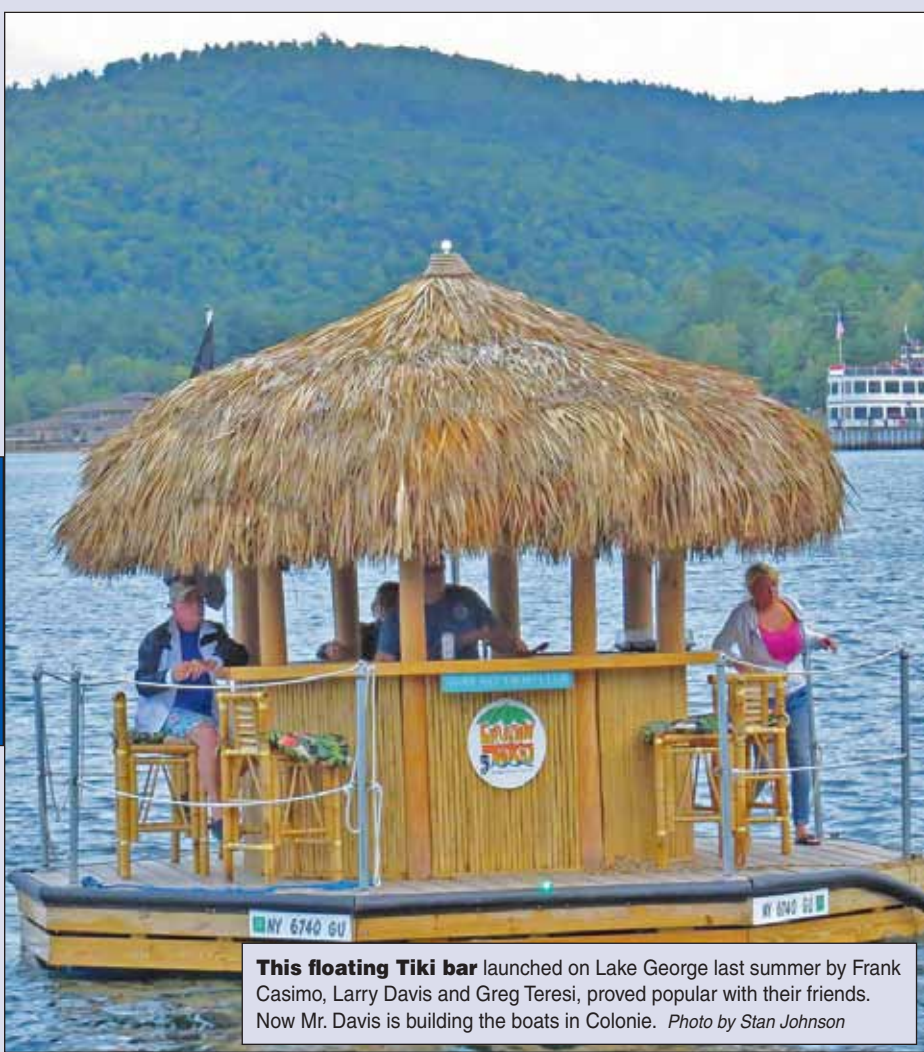

Greg Teresi and Larry Davis, who introduced their personal floating Tiki bar to Lake George last summer, now hope to offer 90-minute tours this summer.

"We are thinking outside the box to provide people with a unique experience on the lake," Mr. Teresi told The Chronicle.

An attorney in Lake George, he also owns Capital City BrewCycle which runs 15-passenger, pedal-powered tours in Troy and Schenectady. "Our proposal is to Seek LG Park Commission OK to run 90-minute cruise for 6 passengers.

School light fight

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

The Glens Falls City School District is asking voters to approve spending $691,200 to install permanent lights on its football field, but the plan is drawing some high-profile opposition.

The proposition, set for a May 16 vote, is separate from a $17.55-million capital proposition for maintenance and repairs to all of the district's buildings.

Both propositions must pass for the lights to be installed, Superintendent Paul Jenkins told

Outrage over April Fools Chronicle

'Sad & tasteless' joke about Log Bay Day

Mark Frost,

I am sending this email to you as I am appalled at your front page article in this week's Chronicle (March 30-April 5) written by you, titled "Log Bay Day will move to Glen Lake." Obviously this is an April Fools Day spoof, but who is the fool? In my opinion, the writer who turned a catastrophic, shattering, traumatic event into material for his joke on his readers. Sad and tasteless. You have my permission to print this if you dare.

Letters to The Chronicle

Chronicle editor is 'fool of the century'

Editor:

How dare you make a mockery of Log Bay Day in your "April Fool" issue? An innocent little 8-year-old girl died as a direct result of Log Bay Day, or have you forgotten?

You try endlessly to portray yourself and your family as being SO intelligent and worldly. The way I see it, YOU are the April fool of the century.

— K. Adams Carey, Fort Ann

Mark, what's funny about Log Bay Day tragedy?

Dear Mark,

One can only ask "What were you thinking?" On any level, what part of your Log Bay Day article did you find amusing? A child died that day? A family was thrown in to untold grief? Five irresponsible adults left the scene of a crime? Lives were ruined that day. So tell me again, Mark, what did you find most amusing?

— Kathryn Slaughter, Lake George

To the Editor:

I was disappointed in your April Fool's day cover story about moving Log Bay Day to Glen Lake. While I know traditionally this is a fun and outrageous cover for your annual April edition, I feel it was in poor taste given the events that followed last years Log Bay Day. Let us not forget Charlotte McCue, who lost her
