

Downstate Democratic Congressman has Thurman home, is keen on Chronicle

By Mark Frost & Ben Westcott
 Chronicle Editor & Staff Writer

The email began: "Mark, Long time part-time reader of The Chronicle...my wife and I have had a second home in Thurman for the last 25 years and spend time in the area when we can. We're residents of Westchester County, and I'm currently serving in Congress NY CD-16 in a Westchester/Bronx district..."

"For the first time, I thought to reach out to see if you'd like me to come in to the office for an interview - so much is happening in DC, and perhaps my perspective as a Dem would be of some interest. Normally I would hesitate since Elise, my colleague, represents this area, but since she's leaving it may be the right time to just get another perspective if you're interested."

Of course we were interested.

Our wide-ranging interview

George Latimer is the Congressman for NY's 16th District, representing southern Westchester County & a small part of the northern Bronx.

Congressman Latimer and his wife Robin came to The Chronicle office on August 14.

Has never lost an election

At age 72, George Latimer is a first-term Congressman, but his electoral career spans more than three decades, after a career in mar-

Sisters return to St. Mary's school

By Cathy DeDe
 Chronicle Managing Editor

St. Mary's Academy, the regional Catholic School in Glens Falls, opens today (Sept. 10) with something not seen at SMA since the 1990s: Sisters!

The new principal is Sister Laurie-Marie, a member of Sisters of the Resurrection, based near Castleton on Hudson.

Sister Angela Marie, who will take her final vows in the coming year, is an experienced accountant and now the Parish bookkeeper.

Sister Mary Agnes, 93, drove for other seniors at her convent. Here, she will be more of a "spirit"
