

Qby: 6 seek 4 seats on County Board

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

Six candidates — and only three incumbents — are running for Queensbury's four At-Large seats on the Warren County Board of Supervisors. So at least one new person will be elected.

The incumbents are Republicans Nate Etu and Doug Beaty and Democrat Dave Strainer.

Republican Mike Wild is not seeking reelection.

The three candidates hoping to win for the first time are Republicans Linda Clark and Brady Stark and Democrat Mike Parwana.

The Chronicle interviewed all

Apple crop strong

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

The local apple crop wasn't hurt by the April 20-21 frost that decimated downstate apples.

"We had a beautiful crop this year. It didn't get us, thank God. I guess we had bloomed just about right," said Kerrie McWhorter, who owns McWhorter's Orchard in Argyle.

Co-owner Mel McWhorter said, "I have a friend in the apple business in the south end of Columbia County, which is east of the Rip Van Winkle Bridge. Fifty miles south of him to Virginia, there's virtually no fruit because of the frost last spring."

"Everybody south of him was in bloom or had not had what

GF ends free parking here & 2 more downtown lots; now by paid permit only

On a split vote, GF Council imposes permit-only parking on 3 city lots plus Clinton garage

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

The Glens Falls Common Council voted 3-2 Tuesday, Oct. 13, to impose permit-only paid parking in the Warren, Ridge and Exchange Street lots, and on the first floor of the Clinton Ave. parking garage that faces Elm Street.

Voting in favor were Dan Donohue, Bob Landry and Ben Lapham. Voting no were Dan Rice and Sean Palladino. Mary Gooden was absent.

Initially, it seemed the resolution had failed. City Attorney Taylor Basford erroneously stated that the 3-2

Opposite reactions to socialism 'Scoop'

Editor:

Congratulations on making all of us proud with your recent publicity in the NYT and beyond!

RE: "The Inside Scoop": You said some disillusioned young people have "turned against capitalism and embraced socialism," and you regret that. That's what you regret? Not the ascendancy of fascism and authoritarianism both
