

All in for Halloween!

Jennifer & Blake Dumas

Chronicle editor Mark Frost writes: I happened to drive past 44 Orville Street in Glens Falls. The 'Ice Scream' truck, a skeleton at the wheel, made me stop to take a photo. Then so much else in the yard unfolded. Blake & Jennifer Dumas (and their son Lincoln, who was at school) make the most of Halloween. They outfit their lawn "new every year," Blake said. 'The kids love it, that's why we do it.' It's homemade. "You don't just buy it at Spirit Halloween." Very creative. Having fun, sharing it..

Seale vs. Stec for NYS Senate

By Ben Westcott
 Chronicle Staff Writer

Dan Stec, 57, of Queensbury is seeking his fourth term as District 45 NY State Senator, on the Republican and Conservative lines. Melissa Seale, 49, of Glens Falls, is seeking the seat on the Democratic and Working Families lines.

The District includes all of Warren, Franklin, Essex and Clinton counties, and parts of Washington and St. Lawrence counties

The candidates have opposite views on the New York Health Act, a bill to create state-run single-payer, universal healthcare covering all New Yorkers, replacing commercial and public insurance.

Mrs. Seale owns Well Child Pediatric Psychiatric Services on Broad Street, Glens Falls. She said she decided to run for Senate after seeing her clients' access to care decreasing and it becoming more difficult for them to obtain services.

"I think it's important to have someone in Albany who under-
