Predictions 2014!

'Duck Dynasty' series spin-off: 'Buck Dynasty'

Yes, the A&E cable network, capitalizing on the raging success of its Duck Dynasty reality series, will introduce Buck Dynasty. "Follow West Fort Ann's legendary Iron Site Gang," the A&E press release will exclaim, "into the deep woods of the Forever Wild Adirondack wilderness — America's largest! It's no holds barred for these untamed mountain men! Hold on for deer life!"

A-Rod, Armstrong bike in Battenkill

Disgraced baseball superstar Alex Rodriguez and tainted cyclist Lance Armstrong will team up as a surprise entry competing in the Tour of the Battenkill Pro-Am bicycle race in southern Washington County on April 5-6. "This is where we start regaining the public's trust," Armstrong will declare. "We're doing this absolutely clean." Rodriguez, the suspended New York Yankee, will add, "And I plan to sue each and every person who thinks we're not!"

Glens Falls wins the 'Pity This City' grant

The brilliance of Glens Falls's gap-toothed, ill-lit, pathetic Civic Center outdoor sign will finally be revealed when Governor Cuomo announces a "Pity This City" grant to bring the signage up to state standards.

Southwest jet lands on Exit 18 corridor

A Southwest Airlines night flight bound for Albany will land on Main Street in Queensbury. "I saw all those lights; it had to be the landing strip," the pilot will say.

'Cluck Dynasty'

The runaway success of Buck Dynasty will prompt yet another A&E north country reality show — Cluck Dynasty, about the Thomas Poultry Farm in Schuylerville.

Gibson for Congress

Chris Gibson, deluged with requests, will move to Queensbury and win the congressional seat Bill Owens is vacating.

The Post-Star will donate building to serve as area's homeless shelter

Saying "it's time we put our money where our mouth is," the chain daily will follow up on its Jan. 10 editorial, "Glens Falls needs a homeless shelter," by donating to the cause this building it was trying to sell for $615,000. "It's only a block away from the Open Door soup kitchen — and they can buy a paper along the way," Ken Tingley will declare. The Post-Star will give itself a bravo the next Monday and will win an award.
