Bats on the come- back?

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

Are Little Brown Bats, once prevalent in the North Country, making a come-back after White-Nose Syndrome wiped out 90 percent of the population two years ago?

Not yet, but hope it's stabilized.

"We can't say we have seen anything that we would call a recovery. We have a couple of different sources of information, though, that suggest the initial, very

Now they're in China

Editor's note: Max Frost, 19-year-old son of Chronicle publisher/editor Mark Frost and Chief Operating Officer Sandra Hutchinson, is in Asia for eight weeks. He and his girlfriend Kira — University of Virginia students — spent two weeks in India, four weeks in Nepal and now are in China. Here is Max's seventh dispatch.

Max writes: We spent this past week traveling with my friend Ken around eastern central China, visiting the village of Xitang, and the cities of Hangzhou and Shanghai.

First we took a bus 4 hours to Xi-

Solar critic draws fire

Dear Mark:

I read with some dismay Mr. Tobin's Letter to the Editor in the July 17th edition of your paper.

Mr. Tobin indicates that the view as he heads north on Bay Road at the location of the Bay Ridge Fire Station has been impacted. He further indicates that "the Town of Queensbury should create ordinances before others decide to create similar monstrosities in order to save a few
