North Country Ministry's new food pantry in Warrensburg

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

The North Country Ministry, after raising $100,000 in a capital campaign, added a food pantry in Warrensburg and will dedicate the building that houses it on Wednesday, Nov. 5, at 3 p.m.

Dedication ceremony set Nov. 5

The ceremony is to thank donors, sponsors and the public, says Ministry director Jill Harrington.

"There is one other small food pantry in the town," Ms. Harrington said, "but they are overwhelmed with the demand."

"Starting about two years ago,

Civic Center deal is done

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

The Glens Falls Common Council's unanimous 6-0 vote Tuesday night in favor of the bid from the Coalition to Save Our Civic Center was the safe bet and gives the City the best chance for success moving forward.

The Coalition's offer of $600,000 and a private-public partnership with Glens Falls — and they hope with Warren County — brings stability.

The Coalition's major players — Ed Moore, Dan Burke, Elizabeth Miller, Tom Hoy — provide instant credibility and a level of comfort that, in the end, the Council didn't have with Kevin McCloskey.

Mr. McCloskey and his partners offered $800,000 cash and
