Flames on fire!

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

The Adirondack Flames are the hottest team in professional hockey. They are riding an eight-game winning streak, during which they've vaulted into second-place in the North Division of the AHL's Western Conference, just three points behind Utica.

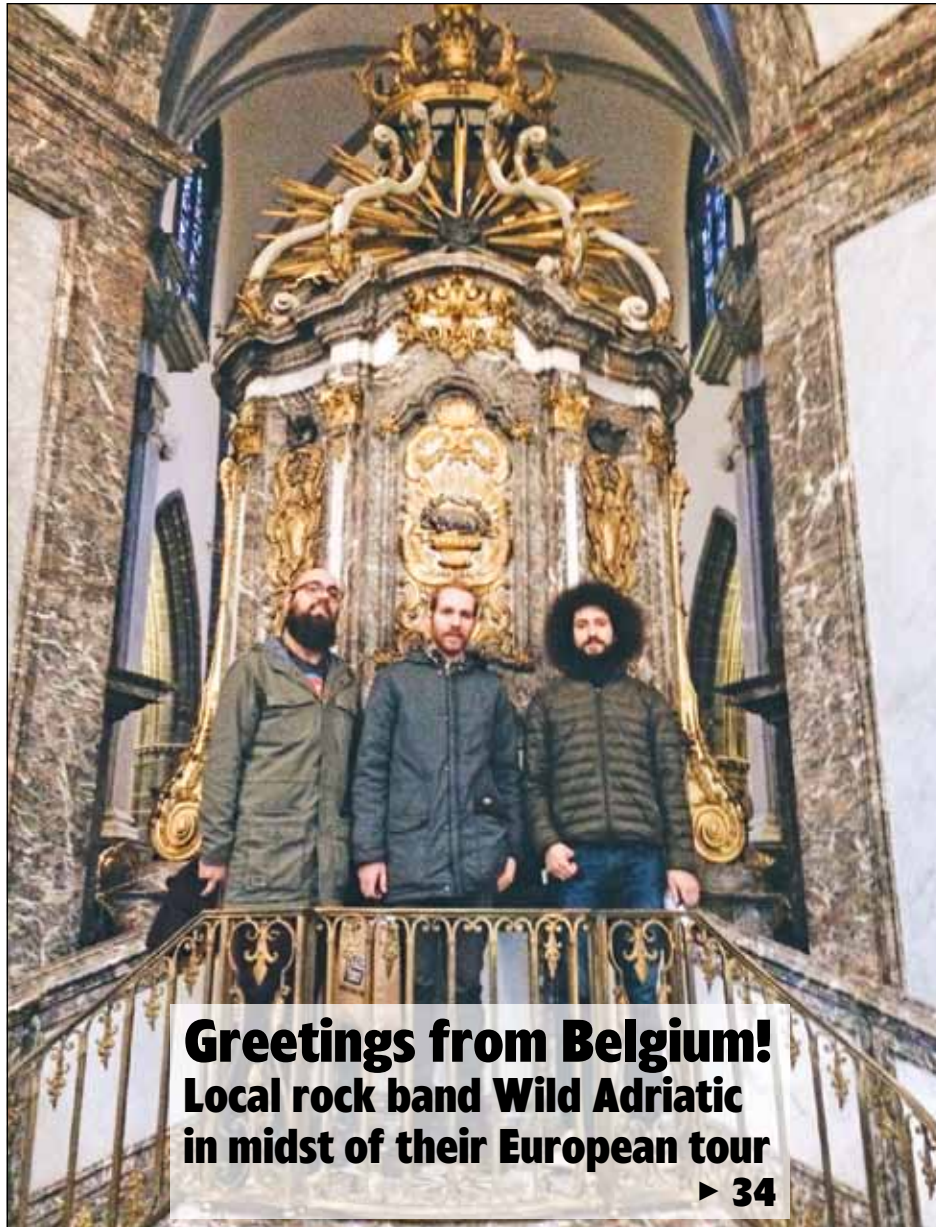

The Flames host the Toronto Marlies at the Glens Falls Civic Center on Thanksgiving eve, Wednesday, Nov. 26, and are also at home Saturday, Nov. 29, Tuesday, Dec. 2, and Friday, Dec. 5.

So how is this young team with a young coach (Ryan Huska, 39), so good so suddenly?

"We practice at a very fast pace," said veteran Trevor Gillies. "...And we've all bought into the system. All of us feel like no mat-

Qby. seeks second straight NYS title

The Queensbury Spartans seek their second straight state Class A football championship this Sunday, Nov. 30, at 3 p.m., against Indian River at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse.

It will be a battle of unbeatens. Both teams are 12-0.

Queensbury is the state's #1-ranked Class A team.

The Spartans won their 25th straight game in defeating Cornwall, 28-21, in the state Class A semifinals Friday at Dietz Stadium in Kingston.
