Downtown Glens Falls, you're looking good!

Chronicle editor Mark Frost writes: Kendall McKernon of Hudson Falls took this photo on Saturday, the night after the Hometown Holiday Celebration. I think Kendall may have had the same thought I did: Downtown Glens Falls at night is really looking good this season. I also thought: The challenge isn't just to do things — it's to do them excellently. Photo/Kendall McKernon

Kenny & kin keep buying

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

The Lake George real estate holdings of developer Dave Kenny and his extended family expanded yet again last month as Mr. Kenny's sister, Maureen McGurk, bought the Heritage Motel at 419 Canada Street for $2.265-million, according to county records.

Reached by phone, Mrs. McGurk said, "Our family owns a lot up there. Dave keeps on telling everyone to come on up!"

Mr. Kenny is one of 11 children, and other of his sisters have also bought motels here.

Mr. Kenny says, "We have a lot of confidence in the area, and want to see it prosper." He is building a 119-room, six-story

Stan's the man!

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

A group of Glens Falls High School alumni calling itself Team Stan hosted Stan Rummel and his wife Susan at a Dec. 3 dinner at the Long Horn Restaurant and Pub in Lake Luzerne.

Mr. Rummel, now 72, was assistant principal at Glens Falls High School from 1968 to 1998. He is the rare school disciplinarian who was popular then and is popular now.

"I always felt so respected by Mr. Rummel," said Donna Slack, a 1976 gradu-
