

PRST STD U.S Postage Paid Glens Falls, N.Y. PERMIT NO. 511

28,000 © Copyright 2014 The Chronicle Phone: 518-792-1126

Dean's Classic Glens Falls photos

Mark Bowie showed photos of Richard Dean, his grandfather

By David Cederstrom

Chronicle Staff Writer

Classic photographs by the late Richard Dean, depicting Lake George, downtown Glens Falls and the Adirondacks from the 1950s on, were presented by his grandson, photographer Mark Bowie, in a PowerPoint presentation attended by about 70 people at Crandall Library on Dec. 3.

Mr. Dean, born in 1913, died at the age of 95 in 2008.

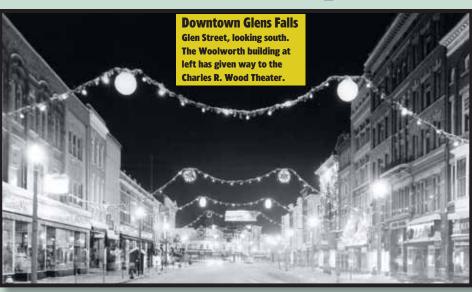

'Dean' of the Adiron-dack photographers

The talk was organized by Heritage Photography of Glens Falls, which has created an "Artist's Corner" on its Website http://www.heritagephotography. net, beginning with Mr. Dean's photos, which are available for sale, said Heritage Photography owner Rebecca Smith.

Mr. Dean "produced thousands and thousands of postcards throughout the region," Mr. Bowie said. "My grandfather was very proud of his postcards. For him they were very personal. He wanted to convey his love for the area to other people."

Mr. Dean's postcard and bro-

Please turn to page 36

Scary threats to our liberty

By Mark Frost

Chronicle Editor

I can't let the year end without registering profound alarm at what I see as real, escalating threats from within our own citizenry to our most basic and precious constitutional liberties. I'm talk-

Free speech, due process & fair play are under assault

Opinion:

ing about rights like free speech, free press, fair trial, due process and pre-Please turn to page 20

Chronicle should have recognized Pearl Harbor Day

Dear Mr. Frost,

I was totally bewildered by your choice of front page newsprint for the December 4th-

10th, 2014 edition of The Chronicle. In my opinion, it would have

Letters to The Chronicle been more appropriate and prudent to recognize the December 7th, 1941 anniversary of the attack at Pearl Harbor.

This attack profoundly im-

Please turn to page 5

