

The deep freeze at the Five Combines

Kendall McKernon of Hudson Falls is at it again: This week with this stunning picture of the Five Combines on the Feeder Canal in Hudson Falls.

He took the photo on January 8 "with the temperatures hovering just above zero degrees," he writes. He tagged the photo "Ice and snow combined."

He tells The Chronicle, "By the way, I fell down getting it...all in the name of artsy pictures, though, right?"

He writes: "Even though I've taken photos my whole life for fun, I started with some pretty good SLR cameras and then moved to digital."

"However, all of the photos I've

This month's drop into the deep freeze prompted The Chronicle to wonder how people who work outdoors cope with the cold.

To start with, it helps if you like what you're doing. One man who works on utility poles said, "Being outside is great. Working with your hands is great. If you're

More 'Scary threats' reaction: The rise of one-sidedness

Dear Mr. Frost:

I find myself in complete agreement with your column ["Scary threats to our liberty"] on the Rolling Stone debacle [the magazine's now doubted exposé]. We moved here in June from Lynchburg, VA, where I
