Morgan's got the mojo

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Morgan & Co. hit the ground running when it opened last fall and it hasn't missed a beat since. Even the brutal winter that dictated indoor evenings for all but the hardiest seemed not to slow Morgan down.

Not only is it busy all the time, it's got buzz. At the Adirondack Theatre Festival Winter Benefit in January, when a gift certificate for Morgan & Co. came up for bid, there was audible excitement — and the certificate was for just $50!

It reminds me of the nearby Bistro Tallulah, in that it brought am-

Morgan & Co. chef-owners are Glens Falls native Rebecca Newell-Butters and her husband Steve Butters. They made the move from Boston and have brought city flair and energy to their restaurant situated in the turn-of-the-20th-century lumber baron mansion known as the McEchron House. Chronicle photos/Mark Frost

Mood is jubilant, the belief deep.

South High Marathon Dance!

The 38th annual South High Marathon Dance — that last year raised $583,000 — takes place this Friday and Saturday, March 6 & 7, at the South Glens Falls High School on Merritt Road. A record 800 students have signed up to dance in the fund-raiser that runs communitywide.

800 kids to dance all night
