Good to be Joel Wincowski!

By Gordon Woodworth
 Chronicle News Editor

It's good to be Joel Wincowski these days. The Lake George High School guard is still the talk of the North Country after his heart-stopping, nothing-but-net 30-footer with 1.6 seconds left lifted the Warriors to their second state title in three years on March 21. There's a maple bacon donut named after him at Caffé Vero, and his humble, quiet demeanor has won him fans all over. "It's been pretty fun this week," he said Sunday, sitting on the couch in the front room of his family's home that overlooks Lake George. Sitting next to him was his father, also named Joel. A former vice-president of St. Lawrence University, he's now a vice president and executive for the Registry of College and University Presidents, which helps schools with

From mail-room to GM at HF's GL&V

By Gordon Woodworth
 Chronicle News Editor

Becky (Wood) Monahan started in April 1979 as an entry-level mailroom clerk at the former Sandy Hill Corporation. Now she's the general manager of its successor, GL&V, which has 90 employees in Hudson Falls. "You know those people who work for the same company for 35 years?" she says. "I'm one of those people."

After graduating from Hudson Falls High School in 1978, Mrs. Monahan met her husband, Rick, at Sandy Hill while picking up, sorting and delivering mail throughout the 19-acre property. Rick is part owner of Monahan
