Father's Day
 issue next week!

A dose of Lake George

By Mark Frost
 Chronicle Editor

Kind of crazy, really. In our busiest month of the year, with this week's 60-page, 3-section Chronicle staring me in the face and our news editor off for a two-week vacation, we left last Thursday on a four-day family camping trip on an island on Lake George.

The start of June wasn't the timing we'd have wished for, but it's when our sons Alexander and Max and Max's girlfriend Kira all could be here, so my wife Sandra reserved two adjacent sites, made most of the

GF grad Megan Guarnier wins 2nd U.S. cycling title; eyeing the 2016 Olympics

By Gordon Woodworth
 Chronicle News Editor

Megan Guarnier of Queensbury, valedictorian of Glens Falls High School's Class of 2003 and Summa Cum Laude 2007 graduate of Middlebury College, won her second USA Cycling road race national championship in four years on Saturday, May 23, in Chattanooga, Tenn.

She outsprinted two competitors to win after finishing second last year.

"When it comes down to a sprint finish, you know it will be close," Ms. Guarnier said via e-mail. "We would have preferred a solo move to the finish line, but with the way the race played out, I had to throw all my
