Greg Norman talks Adirondacks

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

Greg Norman thinks Tupper Lake has limitless marketing potential.

"Tupper Lake has a phenomenal story to tell, considering the history and its location," Mr.

Norman said in an exclusive interview with The Chronicle.

"And I think that story can be put on a giant soap box, a soap box as big as you really want it to be.

"And when you look out and see potentially the Winter Olympics coming back there in the mid-2020s, the resurgence with what is happening with tourism in that area...there's a lot of positive signs for it.

"And on top of all that, it appeals to me because it's the United States and it's New York and it's upstate New York.

"I'm more of a global player, and when I have a chance to get my foot in the door in the United States, it's a great compelling story.

"I'm looking down now in the Southeast, and we'll hopefully do some projects down here. You're looking at the same market.

"People up in the Northeast move to the Southeast in the winter, so you can tell a pretty good story going from one place to

'Taste of North Country' is Sunday

The Glens Falls Kiwanis Club's 23rd annual Taste of the North Country food festival returns to City Park in downtown Glens Falls on Sunday, Sept. 27, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Rain or shine.

Specialties from 37 area restaurants will be served in sample sizes. Nine restaurants are participating for the first time. "Come early for best selection!" urge the Kiwanians.

Admission is $5 for adults and free for children under age 18. Food coupons are now priced at $1.00 each. Samples are mostly priced from one to five coupons.

Note: Taste will again be staged around the edges of City Park, not on the grass as previously announced. The City decided on Monday that the traditional "Taste" layout would be too much strain on the Park grass.

Taste is a complete family festival. Entertainment is provided by the hilarious Mr. Twisty (Mark Frost's favorite), Andy the Music Man and Bobby Dick & Suzy Q.

Not-for profit groups sponsor an array of kids' activities.

Kiwanis Club of Glens Falls is celebrating its 90th year. Taste nets the club approximately $50,000 for its civic endeavors. The Chronicle has been Taste's lead sponsor for all its 23 years.
