Cathy's take on Texas Roadhouse

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

Why all the cars?
Driving by Queensbury's new Texas Roadhouse restaurant that is perched so prominently above the intersection of Aviation Road and Route 9, I've been struck time and again at how smash-full that parking lot seems always to be.

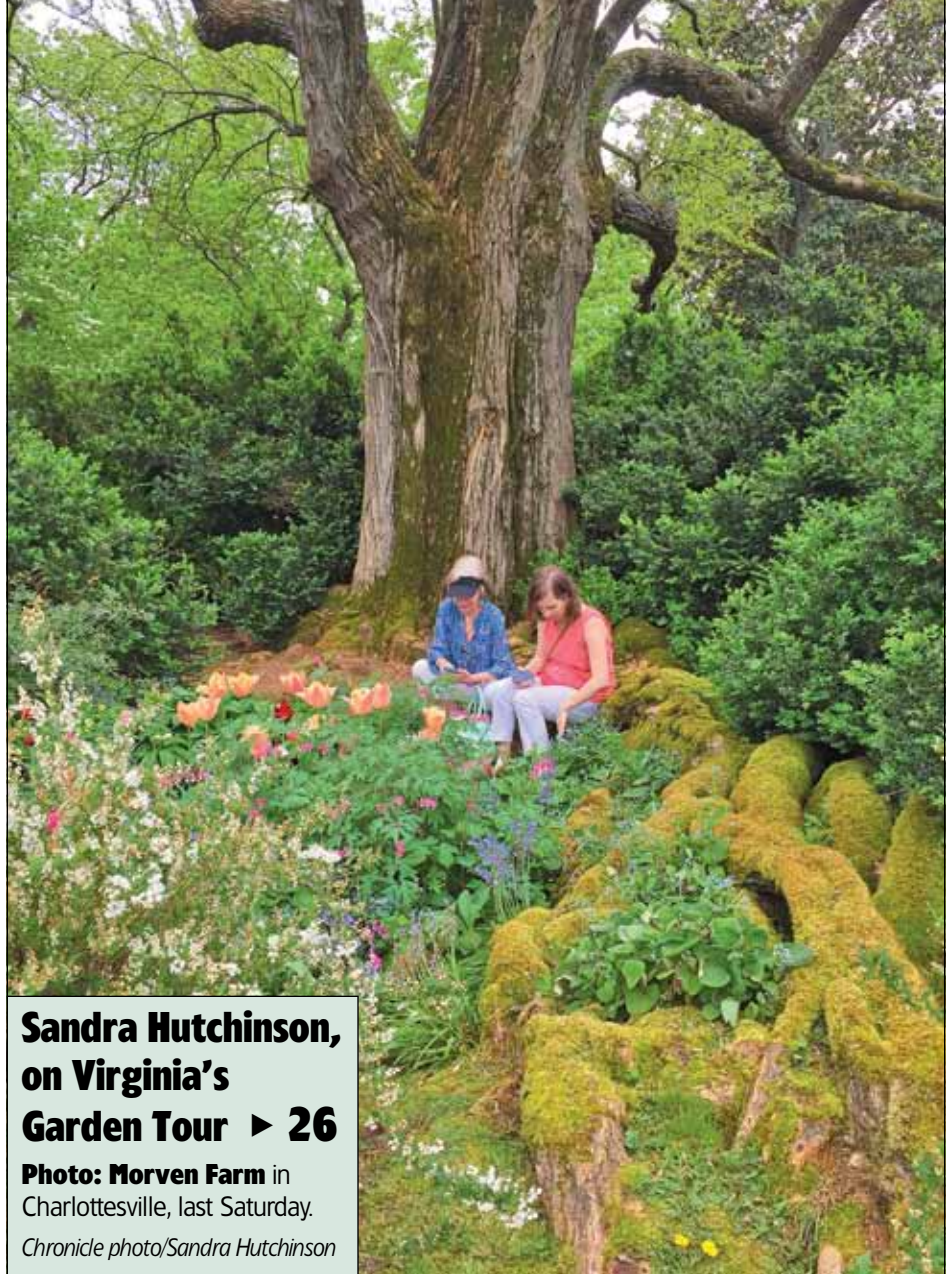

I'm not much of a chain restaurant diner but — what is it about this place? — I had to know.

With my husband once and another couple a second time, we checked it out.

My first time was a "When in Rome" free-for-all: If they serve a baked sweet potato described as "loaded" (for a 99 cent upgrade) with toasted mini-marshmallows and caramel sauce, or they recommend upgrading an entree in big "Texas" style by tossing in
