

Plea: Stop heckling the band!

By Jason Irwin
Chronicle Rock Columnist

I've been playing live music professionally for more than two decades, and I've been attending shows for much longer than that. Being a musician isn't always as glamorous as it may seem. There are plenty of pet peeves that go along with the gig, as in any job. Some just come with the territory. Some shouldn't.

One of those, for myself anyway, is heckling.

Now, before I get going on this, let me explain that I am not talking about shouts of "Free Bird" or that minor level of annoy-

Chris Gibson for President!

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Should we be surprised by Congressman Chris Gibson's announcement Monday that instead of continuing to seek the Republican nomination to run next year for Governor of New York, he's retiring from politics altogether to go into teaching, starting at Williams College.

It was a shock that didn't shock me. Chris Gibson is one of the
