Another $2-million LG sale

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

A property north of Dunham's Bay on the east side of Lake George sold for $2.145-million last week, the third sale in the last month exceeding $2-million. With 250 feet of lake frontage, a 3-bedroom, 3,400-square-foot

Hispanic workers key in local dairy farm & slate industries

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Year-round Mexican workers are key to some of the region's most prominent family dairy farms, and natives of Guatemala work northern Washington County's slate and rock quarries.

"Twenty-four years we've been depending on Hispanic labor," Cliff Hanehan of Hanehan Family Dairy told an audience of about 40 people who turned out for

The mail: Trump 'devoid of moral compass'

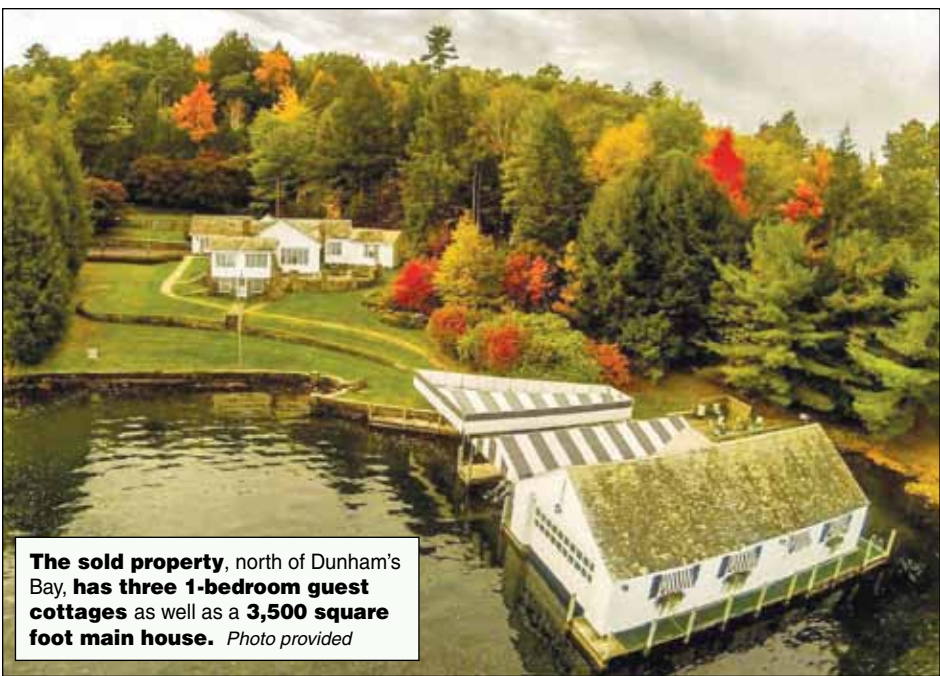

To the Editor,

I read with astonishment a letter by Wm. P. Dow of Lake George wherein he admits that he is not pleased with the presidential choices offered by both major political parties and then proceeds to explain his reason(s) for eliminating all but Donald Trump as his choice.

Former First Lady, Senator and Secretary of State Hillary Clinton was deemed without moral compass while Donald Trump, apparently, was acceptable on this count.

Mrs. Clinton has been married once and served this country with distinction, while Mr. Trump has been married three times, "dated" his second while still married to his first, sued countless times, fined for failure to pay taxes, fined for denying housing to minorities and is currently embroiled in a class action suit concerning his phony Trump

Natl. Safe Boating Week May 21-27

New York had 174 serious boating mishaps in 2015, third in the nation, the National Safe Boating Council said Tuesday, citing newly released statistics from the U.S. Coast Guard. The Council urges use of life vests. "Drowning was reported as the cause of death in three-fourths of all fatalities. Approximately 84% of those who drowned were not wearing life jackets."

More criticism of GF treehouse

To the Editor:

Gordon Woodworth's article about the 'dream treehouse' in the May 5 issue of The Chronicle has prompted me to write. My husband and I are the other
