A twist: She got him into motorcycling

By David Cederstrom
 Chronicle Staff Writer

"I'd like to thank my wife for getting me on a motorcycle," said Rick Del Rio, who is up from Oak Ridge, New Jersey, with his wife Michelle to attend Americade. They've been coming to the event off and on for 10 years.

"We just enjoy riding up here," they said. The region has "some of the best riding in the Northeast."

Michelle, a software developer, said she's been riding motorcycles for 41 years. Rick, an auto mechanic technician, has been riding for 10 years. They each have their own Royal Star Tour Deluxe bike.

Rick is president of New Jersey Chapter 218 of the Star Touring & Riding Association.

Michelle said they like that Americade is open to all different brands of motorcycles. "The people are so nice," and they enjoy spending time in the Village of Lake George at night and the manufacturer demo rides.

How Phil Morse hit it big

By Mark Frost
 Chronicle Editor

Phil Morse went from being an insurance claims adjuster to a medical device salesman to the inventor of his own breakthrough medical device. He built from scratch one of Glens Falls's biggest successes, North American Instrument Corporation.

When he sold NAMIC to pharmaceutical giant Pfizer in 1994 for $165-million, Phil's share was approximately half, which gave him the means to become part owner of his beloved Boston Red

LG Park Commission is 'disingenuous'; 'I lost my dock space' due to registry push

Dear Editor,

I found some of the comments by Mr. Wick in the article on Class B marina regulations for Lake George to be quite disingenuous at best. ("Park Commission reminds LG dock owners who rent space to register," June 2 Chronicle)

If the cause for concern is loss of dock space for non lake resi-

New dock at LG's Sarah Island

As promised after a Chronicle inquiry last week, the state Department of Environmental Conservation did have the new dock installed by last weekend at Sarah Island, a popular picnic spot for boaters on Lake George. Chronicle photo/Mark Frost
