

Events abound!

The mid-June frenzy includes:

- The LARAC June Arts Fest at City Park this weekend in downtown Glens Falls. Zonta's 56th Country Faire takes place right across the street.
- Hudson Valley Volunteer Firefighters Convention in Lake George.
- Adirondack Woof Stock — the north country dog fest with a Woodstock flavor — in Chestertown.
- Check our calendar for more!

Greens abhor Hillary

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Bernie Sanders has given indication he'll eventually back expected Democratic nominee Hillary Clinton for President, but Green Party candidate Jill Stein left no doubt in Fort Edward last week that she won't follow suit.

Speaking in front of the now-closed General Electric plant on Broadway, Dr. Stein said America's workers and families have been especially devastated by two government programs.

First, she said, was NAFTA — the North American Free Trade Agreement. "Who brought us NAFTA? Hillary and Bill together brought us NAFTA...It sent good

The Strand of a dream

The Strand Theatre revival effort in Hudson Falls is just in its infancy, but this concept rendering by Kurt Wehmann of New York City's Holzman Moss Bottino Architecture sketches such enticing possibility that it's incentive to pursue the dream!
