Testify!
I can't think of a concert experience quite so exhilarating as what the Newsboys Christian rock group served up last Friday night at the Glens Falls Civic Center.

The crowd of about 1,800 people (says Civic Center director Jeff Mead) were hooting almost as loudly as your intrepid reporter, as the group played to the back of the room and way up heaven-ward for a solid, energetic, exhilarating night of music.

No surprise that lead singer Michael Tait is the son of a preacher. Testify, again! But there were also just the pure pyrotechnics of

A long ago girls' camp on the east side of Lake George that for 82 years has been an Albany family's rustic retreat was purchased by an Ohio family on June 22 for $1.9-million cash.

Duane Vaughn of DeMarsh Real Estate represented Mr. Edwards. Ken Canastar of Select Sotheby's International Realty represented the sellers.

The 22-acre parcel just north of Echo Bay at Pilot Knob includes 1,365 feet of lakefront, a century-old main camp overlooking a private cove, and primitive bunkhouses that the new owner Jeff Edwards says he'll keep intact.

Mr. Edwards, in an e-mail response to The Chronicle, said he is chairman, president and CEO of the Edwards Companies in Columbus, Ohio, which he described as "a family holding company for my family's varied residential real estate development and construction businesses." What drew him to Lake

Silhouette stickers showing the outline of Lake George have taken the region by storm.

"In the mornings, I would say 50% to 60% of the cars parked around Lake George High School belonging to teachers and students have them," Mayor Bob Blais told The Chronicle. "They have become an extremely popular item. It's a very interesting shape, and it's be-
