Trump Hillary so far

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

So my opinion is that Donald Trump is far too small, nasty, shallow and self-absorbed to become President of the United States — and my biggest regret is that he'll cause a landslide in favor of a person — Hillary Clinton — and a party — the Democrats — who definitely don't deserve it.

analysis

I think Trump will be trounced but he won't be crushed — he apparently does possess an unbreakable ego, which is key to his appeal with many people, including lots of those that I talk to.

You can count on Donald's certainty, that whatever happens, if it's bad, it won't be his fault. It

Lake George summer tradition

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

95 years after it opened, Lakeside Chapel in Cleverdale continues to offer non-denominational worship services all summer on Lake George's Kattskill Bay.

"This place is like a patchwork quilt," said Rita Whiteman, a member of the board of trustees. "The community has woven such history into the fabric of this beautiful place."

Many families — Freihoferes, Wetherbees, Teffts, Youngs, Meyers and Masons, among others — have celebrated multiple

Ideal defends dairy practices

Dear Editor:

Thank you for the recent write-up on the Holstein convention in Saratoga and associated tours.

With less than one percent of the U.S. population involved in the dairy industry, consumers often have many misconceptions, as evidenced by last week's letter from a member of the activist group CARE. We are unsure
