ture event — and at a lean time of year. The Adirondack Film Festival will now own that late October weekend between Columbus Day and Halloween. Its first go drew crowds, won raves, generated electricity that had downtown abuzz.

It was cozy and exciting simul-

Haunted car wash

By Cathy DeDe
 Chronicle Managing Editor

Sure, you've got your haunted hayrides, haunted houses, Great Escape Fright Fest, trick-or-treat parties and costumed kid parades this weekend throughout the region.

But here's a new one — a Haunted Car Wash in South Glens Falls at Smart Wash Car Wash.

Your car gets washed and — if you choose — scary stuff happens too.

"We have every single one of our employees in costumes," says Krystle Greenough, manager and human resources director of the Smart Wash. "There's a fog machine in the tunnel. We spray the vehicles as normal, but with costumes on, and with employees

Objects to Post-Star subscription policy

To the Editor:

Perhaps I am behind the times and no longer understand the meaning of a subscription. I considered a letter to the editor of The Post-Star, but upon reflection, knowing my letter would be thrown in The Post-Star trash bin, I thought contacting The Chronicle might be a better route to go. My parents are
