Ate 'heritage' turkey for Thanksgiving

By Sandra J. Hutchinson

Chronicle Associate Publisher

We decided to try something new this year for Thanksgiving dinner. We ordered a locally-raised "heritage" turkey — a Narragansett Red, to be exact, raised in southern Washington County.

Named for Rhode Island's Narragansett Bay, these turkeys are

Praises Bulman, Ladd & Chronicle approach

Mark,

I read your paper every week and I feel you do a great service to the North Country. I usually don't agree with your politics, but you do make an effort to present other points of view, and that is admirable in these divided times.

Case in point is your post-election issue. Larry Bulman's comments were wonderful, deeply thought out, and heal-
