Hockey team in local hands

By Gordon Woodworth
 Chronicle News Editor

The Adirondack Civic Center Coalition is buying the Adirondack Thunder ECHL hockey team from the Calgary Flames. The Coalition announced the purchase Tuesday morning at a press conference in Heritage Hall at the Glens Falls Civic Center. "We want to control our own destiny," said Dan Burke, president of the Coalition. "We want to have a say in the Civic Center's main tenant..." "This team is now truly our community's team. This is our team and it's going to be our team as long as we want it to be." More than 100 businesspeople, public officials and fans cheered

Big turnout for LG island cabin auction

By Mark Frost
 Chronicle Editor

About 40 people turned out on Wednesday morning, Feb. 22, for the auction of a cabin property at the northeast end of Lake George's 14 Mile Island that had a seeming asking price of $300,000. About a half-dozen people submitted bids. When the bidding reached $500,000, referee Mary Ellen Stockwell asked to see

Marty Lafferty watched with special interest.

Doug Lafferty (Marty's brother) prevailed.

Mary Ellen Stockwell was referee & auctioneer.

Island neighbor John Whalen bid big, too.
