

What's brewing in Granville

By Cathy DeDe

Chronicle Managing Editor

Downtown Granville will be getting a brewery. Slate Town Brewing, a start-up, has purchased 31 Main Street, across from Scotty's, and plans to open before Christmas.

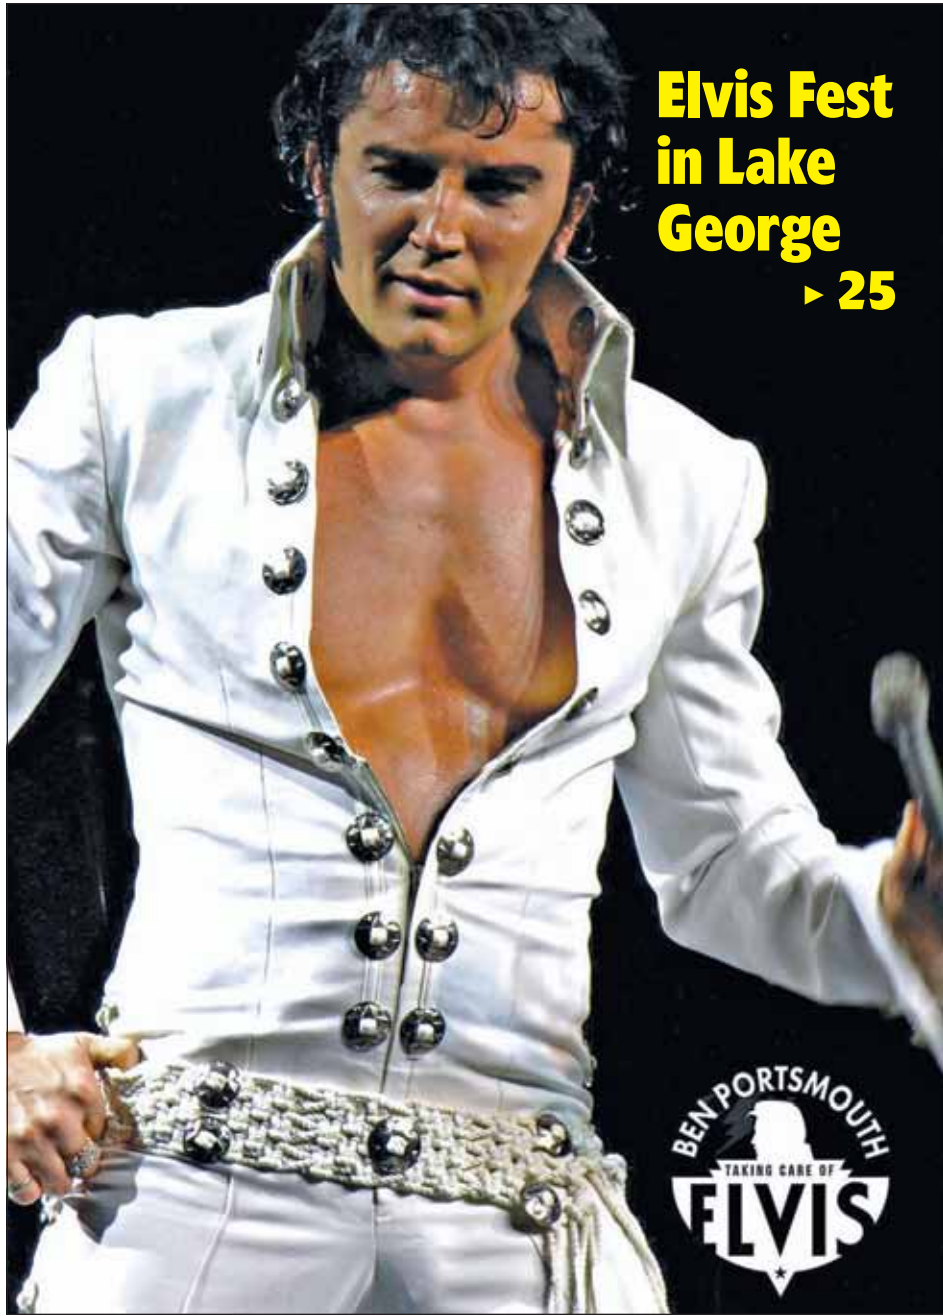

"We just closed on the building last week," Susan

Knapp told The Chronicle.

Ms. Knapp was married to Dan Wilson, the second-generation owner of the Hicks apple orchard. After a divorce that both describe as amicable, last summer she left the farm they'd run

Farmers Market might go 4 stories

By Mark Frost

Chronicle Editor

The envisioned Farmers Market building on South Street that is the centerpiece of Glens Falls's state-funded $10-million Downtown Revitalization Initiative might turn out to be a three- or four-story building with offices and apartments upstairs.

South Street building could have offices & apartments upstairs, says Ed Bartholomew.

Laura Lee Conti deserved credit

To the Editor:

Not recognizing Laura Lee Conti as musical director for the Queensbury show Les Misérables is not acceptable.

Neither the review of the show in March, nor the article regarding the wonderful experiences of the kids at the Proctors event mentioned Laura
