

Checking in on Lake George real estate

By Gordon Woodworth

The Lake George real estate market is still very strong, but it's cooled off a bit from a record-breaking 2016.

Multiple Listing Service data compiled by Tanya Hamell of Davies-Davies & Associates Real Estate show through July 24, there have been 20 sales on Lake George, 10 of $1-million or more.

For the same period last year, there were 31 sales, 15 of $1-million or more.

Right now 92 Lake George properties are listed for sale on MLS — 53 for $1-million or Mazzone Catering — the Capital Region's highest-profile restaurateur and events caterer — has become the exclusive provider for private events at the Courtyard Marriott in Lake George.

The deal was celebrated with a ribbon-cutting and catered function last Thursday at the Marriott, newly built by Lake George developer Dave Kenny and his partners.

Angelo Mazzone, Mazzone Catering's 64-year-old founder, spoke briefly. He said Mr. Kenny “pursued me for a long time to come to Lake George — like forever. We’re happy and we think we’re gonna do great things.”

Mr. Kenny, who spoke even more briefly, said his sole goal is to advance the “Lake George 365” year-round tourism campaign “and prove that it can work.”

Sean Willcoxon, Mazzone Hospitality’s Chief Operating Officer, said he had been pushing for
