Century of Jones family local fire fighters

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

The Jones family is celebrating its 100th year in local fire service, now spanning five generations.

"It all started when my great grandfather Bonaventure Porlier joined the Union Hose Fire Company #3 in Hudson Falls on May 7, 1918," retired Glens Falls Firefighter J.P. Jones told The Chronicle.

"Since then, 28 members of my family have served in fire service.

"The Jones, Porlier and Brunelle families have served or currently serve in the Hudson Falls, Glens Falls, West Glens Falls, South Glens Falls, Kingsbury, South Queensbury, Fort Ann, Fort Edward, Argyle and Hartford fire departments."

Mr. Jones's wife Ann (Deyoe) Jones, says many firefighters and

Moose in swim to 14-mile Island

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Saturday morning, around 8:30 or 9, Dave Fifield and Justin Mahoney were heading north on Lake George near Fourteen Mile Island, bringing back a boat that Fischer's Marina had done some work on. As they turned toward Shelving Rock, their destina-
