Yes, bird feeders do draw bears!

By Gordon Woodworth

Chronicle News Editor

On the same week that the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation urged Town of Lake George residents to bring in all bird feeders to reduce the chance of encounters with "nuisance bears," a Chronicle reader sent us the photo above of a black bear that visited their campsite, and the bird feeders they'd put out, in northern Warren County on Monday.

Objects: 'Ear splitting cacophony' of Adk. Music Festival in LG

Dear Editor:

If you live in or around the southern basin of Lake George and are not furious with the noise emanating from the festival space last Saturday and Sunday [Sept. 1-2], you must be deaf.

For the second year in a row on Labor Day weekend, Mayor Blais and the Village Board allowed the festival space to be taken over by bands playing the most ear splitting cacophony known to mankind. The noise could be heard as far away as Top Of The World.

If you live anywhere in the vicinity, it was impossible to carry on a conversation, watch TV, or talk on the phone and this crap continued until 11:00 PM, which is well after many tax paying residents go to bed. Sleep? Good luck!

The air in the vicinity of the festival space reeked of marijuana

Cobb spokesman faults Stefanik on health care
