

Come to the Chronicle Book Fair!

23rd annual: 120 presenters, kid stuff, free!

By Cathy DeDe

Chronicle Managing Editor

Autumn Leaves: The Chronicle's 23rd annual Book Fair takes place Sunday, Nov. 4, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Queensbury Hotel in downtown Glens Falls. It's free! Please join us!

It's an exciting year, with a lively mix of more than 120 local, Capital Region and out-of-town authors, booksellers, publishers and non-profit groups.

They'll bring local history books, Lake George and Adirondack titles, poetry and memoirs, fantasy, young adult titles, historical fiction, dramatic novels, children's picture books, inspirational writings, cookbooks, used and antique books and much more.

Also all day: Book sales and signings, children's activities, panel talks, readings, demonstrations and more.

Please bring the kids! New this year: We have a full morning of children's story times, from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Also, if you're thinking about creating a book of your own, we have several workshops on

Feeder Canal Alliance: Year 30

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

The Feeder Canal Alliance will celebrate its 30th anniversary on Wednesday, Nov. 7, with "Appetizers & Get-Together" at Maxwell's Pub, 198 Main St., Hudson Falls at 6 p.m., then the annual meeting next-door at 7 at the Strand Theater. RSVP 792-5363.

The Alliance is an outgrowth of the Feeder Canal linear park that was the brainchild in 1987 of Gaynelle Moore and her husband Charles, inspired by reuse of canals they saw during their travels

Another 'Cash Cab' fan

Hi Mark

Besides sports (as a Met fan I can sympathize with you and your Orioles), I watch Cash Cab every chance I get. [Mr. Gallo is responding to Mark Frost's Oct. 18 "Inside Scoop" column, "Editor in need of Cash Cab."] It is a blood pressure reducing 1/2 hour that makes me laugh.

I yell at the TV, holler out the answers, and bet with myself how far the riders will get.

With today's crazy world, we need more TV like this, and less

NCIS and bad remakes like Murphy Brown and of course The Conners.

Ok gotta go. Jeopardy is going on.

Cobb supporter: Thanks for the Q&A Mark did

Dear Mark Frost —

I have been gratified to read (and use for "educating" voters) your excellent, well-thought-out Q&A column with Tedra Cobb.

Your questions led to thorough,
