

Garrow movie draws intense interest

By Cathy DeDe
 Chronicle Managing Editor

Interest in the new movie Garrow about 1970s Adirondack serial killer Robert Garrow is so intense that this weekend's two screenings at the 300-seat Charles Wood Theater sold out far in advance and showings have been added for Friday and Saturday, Feb. 8-9. Tix: $20. 518-480-4878.

Feb. 1-2 screenings at Wood sold out fast; add Feb. 8-9

The Chronicle spoke with filmmaker Lori Kelly Bailey. You might call her an Adirondack spitfire. On the phone, she was high energy, fast-talking and occasionally distracted, dropping F-bombs then apologizing, burning dinner and shouting to her son.

Ms. Bailey is a registered nurse. She said she was born in her father's hometown of Mineville, moved away young, returned as

'Inspired' by 'book that launched The Chronicle'
 Mark,
 I just read the article "The book that launched The Chronicle." [Jan. 24 issue]. You have outdone yourself. I always thought Pepper Turkey was the best until now. I must admit

Check with a local bait & tackle store for any ice thickness information they may know.

But before venturing onto the ice, be sure to have the proper safety equipment. Also use a spud bar or other tools to test the ice as you walk.

Note: One angler says, 'The spud bar always touches the ice before I do.'

Backs Cuomo in push to ban use of mug shots & arrest publicity

Dear Editor:
 I am writing in response to an article entitled "End of The Mug Shot?" written by Gordon Woodworth [Jan. 24 Chronicle].
 It is not often I agree with Governor Cuomo; however, I believe the practice of publishing personal information and mug shots of those who have been arrested is flat out wrong.
 Under the 5th and 14th Amend-
