

Newest LG peril: Fishhook waterflea

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

Fishhook waterfleas have infested Lake Champlain and are seen as a threat to Lake George.

“To hear that fishhook waterfleas are abundant in Lake Champlain is a reason to get on high alert,” Roger Smith said in response to a Chronicle query. He oversees the Lake George Park Commission’s mandatory boat inspection program.

The Lake Champlain Basin Program issued an alert late last week that “nearly all fishing

To the Editor:

Great article by Dan Ladd on his trip to Gettysburg! (July 3 Chronicle) We camped there for 4 nights last August, and did and saw much if not all that he saw. It is well worth the trip, and we are planning on going again in the not too distant future.

One thing we did was hire a Licensed Battlefield Guide for the day. These guides are well trained. I believe for every 20 or 30 who sign up, only 2 or 3 get their license. Their rate is $63 for a 2-hour tour. We did 4 hours, and paid $126, plus tips are appreciated and
