

Letters: Impeach Trump; cite why

To the Editor:

Perhaps I may assist Mr. Frost in responding to the Chronicle reader who inquired as to "What statute specifically has allegedly been violated?"

There are a number of statutory violations under consideration in the impeachment inquiry, many of which involve the obstruction of justice as detailed in the Mueller Report. These are found in Chapter 73 of Title 18 of the Code of Laws of the United States of America commonly referred to as the United States Code or USC and the applicable section number, for example 18 USC 1510, Obstruction of Criminal Investigations.

However, the current inquiry is mainly focused on...bribery. That crime is more clearly denominated as an impeachable offense under Article II of the United States Constitution. The statu-

'Time to stand up to Trump corruption or be called out for complicity'

To the Editor:

Trump & his supporters are working overtime to invent improbable motives and complicated conspiracy theories involving cunning double agents.

Trump claimed once upon a time that he was recruiting the "best people" to the White House and senior ranks of the executive branch. He now claims he got conned into hiring a cabal of covert 'Never

South Glens Falls 40th Holiday Parade

By Gordon Woodworth
 Chronicle News Editor

The 40th annual South Glens Falls Holiday Parade starts at 1 p.m. this Sunday, Nov. 24. It starts at Carriage Traders and proceeds north on U.S. Route 9.

"I cannot even explain how excited I am for the parade," said Megan Quinn, the South Glens Falls native who stepped up late in 2017 to save the parade, working with the South Glens Falls Fire Department and title sponsor Carriage Traders.

"The weather doesn't look too bad, the people are all getting excited and I can feel the holiday spirit creeping in!"

The parade Grand Marshal is
