Stefanik: Independents shun impeachment push

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Meeting with The Chronicle editorial staff on the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, Congresswoman Elise Stefanik said the Democratic impeachment push is losing support, not gaining it.

"Among independents, their support of impeachment has gone down 20 points in the past two weeks," she said.

"I think there is a lot of pressure on Speaker Pelosi from a certain wing of the Democratic Party to absolutely push for an impeachment vote. Some of the ## Great Escape's 'Outlaw' ride height outrages Glen Lake; Qby board: Whoa!

By Patrick Daley
Chronicle Staff Writer

Glen Lake residents packed the Town of Queensbury Planning Board meeting on Nov. 26, united against the Great Escape amusement park's proposed placement of a 165-foot Adirondack Outlaw ride visible from their homes.

Nearly 200 people attended. The majority donned light blue ribbons provided by the Glen Lake Association.

The ride, as currently proposed by the Great Escape, would stand in the Wild West & Ghost Town area, the park's highest elevated area.

It would exceed the 130-foot limit set for that area by the town's 2001 environmental impact study setting guidelines for the Great Escape's future growth.

The park has some alternatives to consider — move the ride to an area with a 175-foot threshold or excavate the Wild West site to lower the ride below that area's 130-foot threshold. These alternatives would allow construction to begin.

The Great Escape issued the following official statement: "We are currently evaluating all our options and will continue to

Kent Gregson: 'Don't get railroaded,' wary on N. Creek rail plan

To the Editor,

Read your article about the railroad ("Push begins to convert North Creek rail to hike & bike trail," Nov. 27).

Perhaps something will happen. Here's my thoughts.

Don't get railroaded...

To Warren County I would say be very careful what you wish for.

This railroad line has absorbed many fortunes already. The corporate bosses, the

'CNN narrative' gives cover for Democrats to benefit Joe Biden

Hi Mark,

I am writing in response to the letter from Mr. Dudley in the 11/27 Chronicle.

Mr. Dudley would do well to learn the facts, instead of repeating a narrative that the CNN talking heads have instructed him to believe.

The facts are that Biden and Obama denied military aid to Ukraine, and let their friend Putin take Crimea on a whim. Then Ukraine President Poro-
