Finds Tingley's column not so 'good natured'

To the Editor:

[Re letter from Post-Star publisher Brian Corcoran: "Tingley 'box of rocks' just 'a good-natured jab'"'] If that was Tingley's good-natured jab, then I would hate to see his reprimands. His attitude is one reason I usually don't read his editorials.

Jimmer the Greek

By Gordon Woodworth

Chronicle News Editor

Jimmer Fredette is happy. He's playing professional basketball for a Greek team, he's getting paid handsomely, and he's seeing a part of the world he might never have seen otherwise.

"It's been good," he told The Chronicle. "Athens is a cool city. There's lots to do. And the food is very good."

The Glens Falls native just turned 31. After years of kicking around the NBA, the NBA Development League and the Chinese Basketball Association, he's found his groove in Greece.

Jimmer is averaging 13.7 points a game for Panathinaikos.
