Corona-virus response intensifies

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

In a fast-changing worldwide outbreak of disease Covid-19, from the new coronavirus, as of Tuesday afternoon the Glens Falls region hadn't been hit hard, but was on very high alert.

"It's a very dynamic situation..."
Glens Falls Hospital vice-president Ray Agnew told The Chronicle Tuesday.

"In addition to providing the best possible care for our patients, our focus is on doing everything we can to reduce potential exposure to any airborne respiratory disease. We are prepared to make changes quickly if need be thanks to our well-established visitor information protocols."

The cost of medical drugs in this country is out of control to

Says 'Democrat party self-destructs'; will Bernie backers riot?

Mark,

It's been interesting, but sad, to watch the self-destruction of the Democrat party.

While I am a Republican, I recognize the value of a "loyal opposition" which offers valid alternatives, and challenges difficult decisions.

Unfortunately, over the last three years, the Democrats have done none of this.

Instead, they have consciously chosen to attempt to regain power by fanning the flames of class warfare and race hatred. The result is that the Democrat party has now ripped itself in half, and

He's a Van fan, too

To the Editor:

Your brief comments on Van Morrison certainly struck a "chord" with me. (Mark Frost's "Inside Scoop," March 5, "Van Morrison doesn't get the credit he deserves.") While I'm dating myself, I'm not ashamed to admit
