The National Weather Service confirmed that a grade one tornado touched down and ran an 8.6-mile path from Call Street, Lake Luzerne, to Ridge Street, Glens Falls on Friday, March 29, from 5:52 to 6:05 p.m.

Its maximum width was "433 yards or about 1/4 mile," and its estimated maximum wind speed was 75 to 110 miles per hour, the 2nd lowest category of tornado.

There were no known injuries or fatalities. Many trees were damaged or uprooted.

"The tornado touched down near the Hudson River close to Hawk Road south of Call Street,"

LG: Let guests dine outside now!

By Mark Frost

Chronicle Editor

Lake George is pushing hard to win an immediate okay for customers to dine outside at the resort's and region's restaurants.

Sit-down dining isn't scheduled for possible opening until the state's Phase Three, which can't start sooner than June 17, but business owners argue that customers would eat more safely at

Phase 2 OK

The state on Tuesday okayed the Capital Region, which includes Warren, Washington and Saratoga Counties, to start Phase Two reopening of businesses on Wednesday, June 3.

It allows some in-store retail, vehicle sales, barbershops and beauty salons and several other categories, all subject to mandatory anti-Covid practices.

The region must continue to meet seven statistical goals.

On Tuesday, Warren County reported zero new cases, Sara-
