GF waterfront to open

The beach at Haviland's Cove on the Hudson River will reopen "on a limited basis starting Monday, June 29," noon to 5 daily, said the City of Glens Falls. Limited crowd size; social distancing. Mark Frost photo

Fireworks biz gets no bang this year

By Cathy DeDe

Chronicle Managing Editor

Fourth of July weekend won't have much of a bang this year, which hits Santore Fireworks especially hard. Based in Schaghticoke, it is the Capital Region's major pyrotechnics provider since purchasing Alonzo Fireworks in 2015.

Most area fireworks shows are cancelled, including major Santore clients Lake George, the City of Glens Falls/Glens Falls Symphony, Bolton, Hague, the Washington County Fairgrounds, the City of Albany, downtown Saratoga and the Racino, Schenectady's Rivers Casino and West Point Military Academy, Santore manager Jeff Ward told The Chronicle.

Still a go at this point: North Creek, Ticonderoga and Tupper Lake. West Mountain Ski Area in
