

Ryan Moore: Obey the rules

By Cathy DeDe

Chronicle Managing Editor

Covid case count has been low and local counties have started to reopen, but Warren County Administrator Ryan Moore warns lockdown could happen again.

"I hope not," Mr. Moore said. "I wouldn't say that it's impossible. The Governor has said if the health situation dictates it, that is what he will do."

As of Tuesday, Mr. Moore said the county had just seven people sick with coronavirus, all mild cases. But he said they are tracking between 200 and 300 people

From a Bike Trail fan: Please stay to the right; time to widen or add walkers' lane?

Dear Chronicle,

I'm writing to offer a friendly reminder to everyone who uses the Warren County Bike Trail.

Please stay to the right so

How our LG book story in 2000 led to our stagecoach coup in 2003

Chronicle editor Mark Frost writes:

Nearing our 40th anniversary issue on Sept. 3, I've been rummaging through Chronicle archives and finding many interesting things. One was an amazing sequence of events from 2000 to 2003 that captures the essence of The Chronicle and our relationship
