Make-over at Massie's

By Cathy DeDe
 Chronicle Managing Editor

Jon Greenwood, owner of Massie's Italian Restaurant in South Glens Falls, took advantage of the mandated COVID shutdown last spring to do a full make-over of the main dining room, including adding a second bar at the restaurant he bought five years ago from Pat Russo, whose parents founded it in 1929.

Calls motorized bikes a peril; enforce law!

To the Editor,
 The city of Glens Falls needs to address the use of motorized bicycles on our city streets. Every day in our city there are bicycles with gasoline engines racing up and down the streets and sidewalks.

Letters to The Chronicle

I am under the impression that it is illegal to operate this type of vehicle on public roads. These motorized bicycles are not registered and yet continue to operate without repercussions. They create noise pollution and
