

The new trail up Potash Mountain

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Here's something that doesn't happen every day. In Lake Luzerne, around the corner from Harris Grocery on Route 9N, a brand-new — well-done and elaborate — hiking trail has debuted up Potash Mountain.

I mention Harris Grocery in particular because its late owner Alice Harris donated the land that set the stage for the trail.

Jim Mosher, who bought the store from Alice, and Steve Mackey, whose family for 40 years has operated the Luzerne

A view from the top

Call it the 'Mackey-Mosher Trail,' suggests Mark Frost. Steve Mackey did much of the laborious building of the stone steps using rocks on the mountain. It facilitates hiking and combats erosion. Jim 'Jungle' Mosher helped in the stone work but also did much of the behind the scenes communication that made the new Potash Mountain trail possible.

How Covid wary are you?

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

On a scale of 100 to zero, with 100 meaning you never leave the house and zero meaning you never wear a mask and you go everywhere, where are you on the Covid-19 wariness scale?

That question has been on my mind for weeks, and now President Trump is clearly trying to make campaign hay by downplaying his concern.

I consider myself pretty wary, with a grade of something like 70 on the scale, but that's less than my wife Hutch. I put her at 80+.

What frequently startles me is

Atty. questions Nikki Moreschi's experience claimed re jury trials

Dear Mr. Frost,

Firstly, I thoroughly enjoyed your Law Day presentation to the [2019] Warren County Bar Association, it seems almost an eternity ago (quarantine isolation syndrome et al).

Secondarily, I am a huge fan of our, "Free Press" and find the attacks on the media horrendous, especially when our local politicians parrot their national counterparts. It is a disgrace.

This is not to say that the free speech protections should be granted carte blanche when considering the technological advances that allow and promote mistruths and hate speech, to spread faster than responsible journalism.

Which brings me to my final point. I was shocked with the advertising relating to the Warren County Judgeship (circa June 13, 2020 and forward).

I know print media has to survive. However, accepting advertising dollars for misleading, if not inappropriate, claims, in a judicial race, has to be seriously reconsidered.

I have obtained the NYS Unified Court System's records

Student, 17: Don't grade us in gym

To the Editor:

I am 17 and all I would like to do is share my opinion. This is on the subject of gym class in schools. I think that having a grade in gym is a bad idea because it brings down kids' grades that do participate and it helps the kids who don't par-
