

Chronicle's gotten scary!

Office consensus is that Chronicle Chief Window Officer Sandra Hutchinson may have outdone herself with 'Chronicle Haunted Library,' for the Glens Falls Collaborative's annual Halloween contest. There are business and residential categories competing. For a map go to: glensfallscollaborative.com

Running for Assembly

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

There's a three-way race for the 114th District Assembly seat that Dan Stec is giving up to run for the State Senate seat being vacated by Betty Little. The candidates are:

Claudia Braymer, 40, a Democrat who is Glens Falls Ward 3 County Supervisor. She also has the Working Families line.

Matt Simpson, 53, a Republican who is Horicon Town Supervisor. He also has the Conservative and Independence lines.

Evelyn Wood, 43, a former Republican Thurman Town Supervisor running now on the independent national SAM — Serve America Movement — party.

Ms. Braymer, an attorney who has served on the Warren County Board of Supervisors since 2015, says, "I think I've shown I have an independent voice. I'm known for doing my homework, talking to colleagues and digging into the issues to make the best decision I can. I'm not always with the Democrats or Republicans; I have one of the most independent records up there at the County."

Mr. Simpson has a small business background; he's retired from Matt Simpson Drywall. In Horicon he served on the Planning Board, then as elected councilman, then elected supervisor, "now in my seventh year." He is president of the Adirondack Association of Towns and Villages.

He says, "I'm very proud of my

'Despairs' absence of good candidates; he only liked Bloomberg

Editor,
I have to wonder what Bill Buckley, Barry Goldwater, Ronald Reagan or even Nixon would have made of Donald Trump. Not much, I'll wager.

I despair that there is anybody who can lead this country effectively, lead us in the right direction, and get elected.

Mike Bloomberg was, and is, head and shoulders over all the other presidential wannabes, both parties, 2016 and present, but unfortunately never got serious bout running.
