College football another great US divide

By Mark Frost
 Chronicle Editor

College football season began last weekend. I watched some of the Notre Dame-Florida State game played in Tallahassee Sunday night. 80,000-seat Doak Campbell Stadium was jammed and rockin'. No masks, no social distancing — an all-out rip-roaring night out.

Analysis/opinion

Covid cautionaries had to be apoplectic. That's not even to mention the home crowd's non-stop Indian whoop. Florida State is the Seminoles. Cleveland ca-

Whether Cuomo or Little, don't name things for politicians

Hi Mark,
 Liked the picture of the Tappan Zee Bridge sign (Mario Cuomo). I agree that Andrew Cuomo just wanted to have the Cuomo name in the spotlight. Unfortunately same goes for the Betty Little Blvd. in Lake George. Politicians work for the people, they shouldn't be mistaken for gods or higher powers. No politician is worthy of any bridge, waterway, highway named after themselves.

Criticism of Biden 'misplaced' on exit from Afghanistan; a chance to try diplomacy with Taliban

To the Editor:
 Some thoughts on the controversy surrounding the U.S. withdrawal from Afghanistan. Criticism of President Biden is largely misplaced. The current situation was not caused by the Biden administration. It is the result of strategic blunders by Democratic and Republican ad-
