Holiday parades resume

Thwarted last year by the Covid pandemic, two annual holiday parades return this weekend.

The 9th annual Lighted Tractor Parade in Greenwich, Washington County, is Saturday, Nov. 20, at 6 p.m. Community activities begin at 2 p.m. Free horse-drawn wagon rides from 2 to 5, holiday music at Mowry Park, holiday shopping and refreshments at eateries and food trucks in the village.

South Glens Falls Parade is Sunday, 11/21; Greenwich is Saturday

The 41st South Glens Falls Fire Company Holiday Parade is Sunday, Nov. 21, starting "promptly" at 1 p.m., heading north on Route 9 from Carriage

GF Hospital busy: Covid surge; more

By Cathy DeDe

Chronicle Managing Editor

Twenty months on, Glens Falls Hospital's Covid hospitalizations equal or surpass the highest of the pandemic. Tuesday's count was 44 admissions, seven in the Intensive Care Unit (ICU).

Most chilling, "just between November 10 and 16," Glens Falls Hospital had four Covid fatalities, reports Hillary Alycon, the hospital's Director of Infection Prevention. "That's consistent, every week."

Beyond Covid, hospitalizations are up in general, while staffing is down (more about that later in this story).

"The ER [Emergency Room] is busier than a year ago," said Ray Agnew, Vice President of Community Engagement.

"Behavioral health [and] we're seeing more people admitted with respiratory illnesses such as pneumonia." Even: "More babies are being born."

"Just in raw numbers," Mr. Agnew said Tuesday, "today we
