Loda opens in Bolton: 'Elevated' dining from NYC couple

By Cathy DeDe
 Chronicle Managing Editor

Louis and Danielle DeSantis, known for their popular Bear's Cup bagels-and-breakfast take-out on Main Street, Bolton Landing, have now opened Loda, an "elevated dress-up" restaurant next-door.

They scored with Bear's Cup bagel biz; now try 'speakeasy French bistro'

"There are many options here for casual dining or more luxurious, but it's still the Adirondacks theme," says Ms. DeSantis. "My thought is to transport you maybe to a New York City speakeasy, French bistro for a special night out." The name Loda is derived from the first

Wash. County Fair is full go

By Sophia Afsar-Keshmiri
 Chronicle Summer Staff

The 132nd Washington County Fair opens Monday, Aug. 22, and runs daily through Sunday, Aug. 28, at the fairgrounds on Route 29, between Greenwich and Schuylerville.

Aug. 22-28: Back to normal!

The animals, the rides, the games, the tractor pulls, food concessions new and old: "It's back to normal" for the first time since Covid, says Fair co-General Manager Rebecca Breese.

She touts the new giant Ferris wheel, year three of the 'Big Push' cow birthing, craft bev-

Redrawn GF ward lines protect office holders who people never got to vote on

Dear Mark,
 What a mishmash of logic the new Glens Falls ward boundaries is built on. According to the task force, if they redrew the boundary lines without regard to incumbency, there would have to be new elections for those incumbents who are no longer in their old wards. Yet, for example, the Fourth Ward has been expanded to include a good section of the
