Ukraine twins at work in Lake George

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

Ukrainian twins Anna and Tetiana Huzii have worked at the Fort William Henry hotel desk all summer.

"I work in the morning, Anna in the evenings and our guests think it's one person," Tetiana laughed. Their only simultaneous day off is Friday.

The twins' hometown, Ivano-Frankivsk, is around 200 kilometers from the border with Poland in Western Ukraine.

Asked about the Russian invasion, Tetiana said, "We didn't expect it."

They said their hometown's airport was bombed by Russia shortly after the war began, on February 24.

The twins were in school in Slovakia, studying for masters degrees in tourism.

Phantom restaurants...

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

I recently used Doordash — the Internet delivery app — for the first time locally. To my surprise, lots of restaurants were listed I'd never seen or heard of.

Have you tried Big Spoon Cafe? Mama Food Mart? Beast Burger? Sammie Up? Wings to Go? They're all listed as local restaurants available for delivery.

I did some sleuthing. Big Spoon Cafe and Sammie Up both list their address at Avia-

FBI Trump search: How about fair play as to Hillary, Hunter?

To the Editor:

This letter is in response to Walter Rehm in the August 18 to 24 issue. He was upset with Elise Stefanik's comments on the raid at Mar-a-Lago. His comments exemplify what is wrong in America today. Too many people just choose a side and anything goes for their side and nothing is ok for the other. How could anyone not see that
