Dan Hall & twin brother Dennis in NIH lifelong study of twin brother veterans

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

Former Glens Falls Mayor Dan Hall and his fraternal twin brother Dennis are service veterans participating in the lifelong federal “Vietnam Era Twin Study of Aging.”

Every five years, the National Institutes of Health provides the men an all expenses paid trip to check their mental and physical agility and other aspects of their health.

Most recently, they flew to La Jolla, San Diego, California.

“The sets of twins are in every state in the United States. There are 7,400,” Dan said. “In San Diego, they bring a set of twins in every day, five days a week.”

All the participants are veterans. Dan notes, “My brother and I both served during Vietnam, we didn’t serve in Vietnam.”

They graduated from Queensbury High School in 1969.

Dan served in the Army, stationed in Okinawa, Japan. A long-time participant in Glens Falls civic efforts, he served as mayor from 2018 through 2021.

Dennis, who lives near Charlotte, North Carolina, had a

Trey Anastasio Band will pack the Cool Insuring Arena Sunday, Nov. 13.

Boom month at the Cool

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

As of Monday, 5,800 seats were sold for the Trey Anastasio Band concert Sunday, Nov. 13, at the Cool Insuring Arena in Glens Falls.

“We are sold out and now selling limited view seats,” executive director Jeff Mead tells The Chronicle. “The goal was 4,800, so this will be a good show for us.” All six box suites are sold.

“We also have two Thunder (hockey) games Friday and Saturday, which we expect 4,000 on Friday and 4,000 plus on Saturday (Military Night).

“We expect about 15,000 people at the arena this

Could we do election issue a week earlier?

Dear Mark,

I plan to vote today but waited until I could read your Election Issue!!

Since early voting is now available, would you consider publishing this issue a week earlier next year??

I love the candidates’ statements but also appreciate your insights! Thanks.
