SGF Fire Holiday Parade Sunday

The South Glens Falls Holiday Parade, organized by the South Glens Falls Fire Company, takes place Sunday, Nov. 20, starting "promptly at 1 p.m."

The parade starts at the Route 9 and Feeder Dam Road intersection and proceeds north on 9 toward the Glens Falls bridge.

"This year is looking incredible," parade organizer Megan Quinn told The Chronicle, in an email conversation.

"With nearly 70 different groups signed up to march, we couldn't ask for a better turnout. This will be a fantastic year for our beneficiaries, the Moreau Community Center and Tri-County Marines Toys For Girls

So much mail on Stefanik editorial

To the Editor:

One of the many reasons I like the Chronicle so much is that you handle controversial subjects with class and dignity. You know how to be meaningful without being mean. I have some conservative views about a lot of subjects and people who don't agree with me tend to impugn my intelligence too. Thank you for doing such good work with your newspaper.

Respectfully,

— Loretta Mulson, Lake Luzerne

Mark's support for Stefanik shows 'lack of respect for country, state, community'

I agree with Dennis Maher, Mark. Your support of Stefanik is a sad statement on your obvious lack of respect for this country, this state and this community. She does not "back the blue" — she, instead, kisses the back-end of tR. She does not stand for anything that is just and she continues to support the fallacy of "stop the steal," which promotes the assault on the police who stood up for our democracy.

— Lois Karhinen, Queensbury.

Disagrees with Mark but 'sorry for people who shut out views other than their own'

Hello Mark,

I'm sorry to hear you lost subscriptions from people who
