New Way reopens on South Street!

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

New Way Lunch is back. After 34 months — nearly three years — the Gazetos family has reopened on South Street in downtown Glens Falls where the 103-year-old hot dog biz began.

"This is huge. Huge for Glens Falls too," said Nick Gazetos, the fourth generation family member who is going to manage the South Street location, which has undergone substantial renovation.

Nick, his sister Ali Gazetos Mineo and their parents Peter and Susan Gazetos are all active in the business.

Even as the South Street New Way was closed since 2020, New Way continued its Queensbury and Warrensburg restaurants.

South Street's extensive renovation added a covered outdoor patio that will seat around 16 when the weather warms; restained wooden booths; and a new light blue color theme on

At odds on Elon

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

"What do you think of Elon Musk?" was the question of the week that we posed on Jan. 5 in our weekly email to Chronicle digital subscribers. Many people replied. Opinions were strong and varied. Here's a sampling.

- "Spoiled rich kid" — Nan Scinta
- "I don't think much of Elon Musk because he's going to allow Trump back on to spread his view of the election." — M. Enhorning
- "I'm not sure if he is here to save us or destroy us. But I'm here for it." — MaryBeth Duell, Diamond Point
- "I believe that Mr. Musk is doing a yeoman's work in trying to get the Twitter business to be unbiased. That makes him a good citizen. His other busi-

Patty Bethel in GF: 'I love NYC too'

Hey Mark...

[Responding to Mark Frost's 'Weekend in New York City' article, Dec. 29 Chronicle]

I love NYC. I too was there in early November. For the first time since 2019, I spent 5 days outside of GF!

Enjoyed Hamilton, taping of Colbert Show (guests were John Oliver and entire cast of
